

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: The Most Powerful Person in the Nation 1

HOUSTON

1850–1898: We Had a Good Table 7

1898–1914: The Town Pump 35

THE NATIONAL STAGE

1914–1918: Give Until It Hurts 59

1919–1924: The Family Won't Discuss It 90

1924–1928: Draped and Drowned in Decorations 119

THE GREAT DEPRESSION

1928–1932: Never Rope a Steer Going Downhill 169

1933: At the End of Our String 199

1934: Go Directly to the RFC 215

CONTENTS

- 1935: Friendly, Industrious, Intelligent Dollars 236
1936: No Actual Ultimate Cost 251
1937: We Are Not Going Haywire 274
1938: Spenders and Lenders 300

WORLD WAR II

- 1939: An Avalanche of Orders 325
1940: Just Another Loan 343
1941: You'd Better See Jesse 375
1942: A Material More Precious than Gold 399
1943: Ask God to Stop Him from Lying 443
1944: Jump When the Gong Sounds 475
1945: A Very Difficult Letter to Write 505

HOME

- 1946-1956: It Has Grown Out of Bounds 527

Bibliography 585

Index 591